

Dear Friend,

The District Attorney's Office of Webb & Zapata counties is excited to invite you to the 11th Annual Shoot for the Stars Sporting Clay Tournament scheduled for Saturday, May 11, 2019 at the South Texas Shooting Complex. For the last 11 years, this fundraising event has helped many nonprofit organizations raise money including the 4H Club, Make a Wish foundation, Casa de Misericordia and Ruthe B. Cowl Rehabilitation Center. This year, the shoot will bring many participants together to benefit the Webb County Better Community Foundation (WCBCF); a non-profit corporation that supports services and activities in the areas of education, mental health, overall wellness, various therapies and athletic programs.

Through a visionary leadership and a desire to invest in the future of our community, the WCBCF has provided opportunities through endowments to more than 60 local schools and charitable organizations including Laredoans Against Drunk Driving, Volunteers Serving the Need, and the Habitat for Humanity, to name a few. The WCBCF's biggest endeavor is creating an academic collegiate scholarship for students wanting to pursue a college degree. To date 36 students from Laredo and Zapata, Texas, have received $1,000 scholarship to pursue formal higher education.

We are very appreciative of the numerous individuals and businesses who help sponsor this event each year. We encourage you to join us in supporting the Webb County Better Community Foundation and invite you to participate in our event as a sponsor or shooter. Without the generous support of sponsors like you, it would be impossible to make this event an ongoing success.

I thank you for your consideration and look forward to hearing from you.

Respectfully,

Isidro R. Alaniz
District Attorney for Webb and Zapata Counties

Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
